

I am a retired schoolteacher and is on disability pension, I normally sleep until 9am however, I have been harrassed by telemarketers at 8am in the morning and would call my number every half hour - I have gone through anerysm and breast cnacer and therefore needs rests as much as possible, please do something to stop the telemarketers in harrassing people who are in dire need of rest. Thanks.